

Social and Personal.

A VERY pretty marriage will be solemnized in the drawing-room of the Jefferson at half-past 5 o'clock this evening, when Miss Grace Greenwood, daughter of Mrs. Margaret F. Greenwood and the late P. F. Greenwood, of this city, will become the bride of Walter Dabney Phillips, of Cincinnati, son of General A. L. Phillips, of this city. Dr. W. R. L. Smith, assisted by Dr. William H. Whitell, of Richmond College, officiating.

The room will be artistically decorated with ropes of smilax and baskets of Killarney roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Thomas W. Murrell, will wear a gown of pastel green crepe de chine with trimmings of real lace and touches of silver, and will carry a bouquet of Killarney roses. Little Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Phillips, sisters of the groom, will serve as flower girls, and will wear charming lingerie frocks with wide green sashes and carry gold baskets of Killarney roses. The bride will wear a gown of pearl gray crepe de chine with trimmings of real lace and touches of silver, and will carry a bouquet of silver, and will carry a bouquet of silver, and will carry a bouquet of silver.

The bride's party will enter the strains of "Lohengrin's" wedding march, and Rubenstein's "Thou art like unto a dove" will be softly played during the ceremony by Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt and Professor Jacob Reinhardt. After December 15 Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will be at home at Clifton, Cincinnati.

Engagement of Interest. Mr. Randolph, of Amherst, Va., announces the engagement of his daughter, Kate Whitcomb, to Charles Landon Scott, Jr., of that place. The wedding will take place sometime in December.

Miss Randolph is the daughter of the late Major P. F. Randolph, who was at the time of his death one of the vice-presidents of the Southern Railway. Mr. Scott is a young civil engineer, the son of C. L. Scott, of the Amherst bar, and is now with the State Highway Commission.

Noting-Norris. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hampden Pleasants have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Janet Carter, to Richard Massie Nolting, the wedding to take place on Thursday morning, November 11, at 11 o'clock, in the Grace Episcopal Church. The marriage is of much interest to Richmond society on account of the prominence of the contracting parties.

Woman's Club. In view of the book reception to be held at Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, the chairman of the library committee requests that all ladies having books out will return them to the club by Saturday evening, that there may be as little delay as possible in preparing the new catalog.

Pate-Todd. The wedding of Miss Carrie Elizabeth Todd, daughter of the late Walter J. Todd, to Newton Elmore Pate, took place Wednesday evening at half-past 8 o'clock, the Rev. S. H. Templeman officiating. The color scheme of green and white was effectively carried out in chrysanthemums, ferns, palms, candles and love knots of white tulle. Played the "Wedding March" from Mendelssohn and "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony.

The matron of honor, Misses Ruth Johnson and Lizzie Graham, were gowns of white messaline with trimmings of real lace and touches of silver, and carried white chrysanthemum bouquets. The bridesmaids, Misses Lillian Scott, Mabel Beard, Marie and Mattie Todd, wore green messaline gowns with silver trimmings, and carried white chrysanthemum bouquets. The flower girls, Edith Tanner, the flower girls, wore dainty little dresses of white, and preceded the bride, carrying baskets of white chrysanthemum petals, which they scattered upon the aisle. Price Pate, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Hunter Talman, John MacCliffe, Marvin Pullen and Thomas Todd.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Julian P. Todd, and wore a gown of soft white satin, handomely trimmed in baby Irish lace and outaiche braid, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids, her veil being caught with a spray of the same flowers.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Pate left for a trip North. The groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Ellen Pate and the late W. B. Pate, formerly of Hanover, Committee to Meet.

A. C. L. Building New Line. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEWBURN, N. C., October 27.—For a year or more it has been currently reported that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad would extend its line from Wilmington to Newburn on to Edwards, N. C., a point on the Washington and Vandalia line of the A. C. L. Supporters have been through this section for several months surveying and building the line, but it now seems that the line is to connect at Grifton with the A. C. L. branch running from Kinston to Weldon. It is said that options have been taken on the right of way, and that the line will surely be built, and in the near future.

Red Men's Memorial. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, N. C., October 27.—On next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Improved Order of Red Men, of this city, comprising Tan Tribe No. 18, will hold memorial exercises in commemoration of its dead members. This is the first meeting of this kind ever held in this city by this order, and the program of exercises will be very interesting. The address of the day will be delivered by Edward L. Stewart, of Washington. N. L. Simmons will also deliver a eulogy. The musical program will be rendered by the Methodist Church choir.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

W. E. Roots Caught Under Building He Was Tending Down.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BEACH, VA., October 27.—News has just reached here of the death this morning of W. E. Roots, who was caught under an old building he was engaged in tearing down on the farm of W. H. Terry, near here, known as the Elm. Mr. Roots was a nephew of Mr. Terry, for whom he was working. They had very recently moved to this county from Richmond, where Mr. Terry is still in business. No one was at home at the time of the accident except Mrs. Terry.

McGee-Goss. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WINCHESTER, VA., October 27.—James C. McGee and Miss Emily C. Goss, daughter of Robert Goss, were married to-day at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. T. K. Cromer. They will reside in Cumberland, where the groom is connected with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Bordin-Block. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) HEATHSVILLE, VA., October 27.—Bethel M. Church was this morning at 10 o'clock the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Susie Anne Bordin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Taylor Rock, became the bride of Dr. James Buckner Bordin, of Chatham, N. C.

Correspondents are requested to send communications on subjects in which they are interested, and regarding which they desire information to the Editor of the Women's Page.

What is the best thing to remove the marks of hot plates from a mahogany table? A. P. C. A good getting the marks off of hard and constant rubbing with it. If this fails, the mahogany will have to be finished over.

Injurious to Baby. Do you consider a thumb-sucking habit injurious to a baby? How should a baby be broken of such a habit? W. E.

Such a habit is said to cause adenoids. Put the baby's hands in thumb-sucking mittens, or tie them down. If this proves ineffectual make some cardboard splints, or put a stiff cloth on the baby's arm, so that the fingers cannot be put into the mouth.

Map Portfolio. Suggest some indispensable motor-car adjuncts as a basis of holiday gifts to men having motors. A. B. S.

A useful and ornamental gift is a portfolio for the map which every motorist must take along with him. Such a portfolio should be made just the size of the map used, and care should be taken that, while decorative, they should be neither clumsy nor heavy. Cloth with a monogram and the number of the car done in embroidery, makes a pretty portfolio.

Chamois Skin Jacket. Another welcome gift to the motorist is a chamois skin jacket, which, if treated like one recently brought from France, is both ornamental and novel. This jacket should be made just the size of the map used, and care should be taken that, while decorative, they should be neither clumsy nor heavy. Cloth with a monogram and the number of the car done in embroidery, makes a pretty portfolio.
